1           TO THE CLERK OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE 2 EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA:

3           PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendant LINCARE INC. (“Lincare”) hereby removes 4 the above-entitled action from the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Tulare, to 5 the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§
6 1332(d) (Diversity under Class Action Fairness Act), 1367(a) (Supplemental Jurisdiction), 7 1441(a), 1441(b), 1446 and 1453, based on the following facts:

8 I. PLEADINGS AND PROCESS, AND ORDERS

9           1. On September 7, 2022, Plaintiff Jennifer Prostek (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on 10 behalf of others similarly situated, filed a complaint against Defendants Lincare Inc. and Lincare 11 Pharmacy Services Inc. (collectively, “Defendants”), entitled “JENNIFER PROSTEK, an 12 individual, on behalf of herself and on behalf of other persons similarly situated and aggrieved, v.
13 LINCARE INC., a Delaware corporation; LINCARE PHARMACY SERVICES INC., a Delaware
14 corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,” in the Superior Court of California, County of 15 Tulare, Case No. VCU293223 (hereinafter, the “Complaint”). A true and correct copy of the 16 Complaint is attached to the Declaration of Min K. Kim, ¶ 2 (“Kim Decl.”) as Exhibit A. The 17 allegations in the Complaint are incorporated for reference in this notice of removal but are not 18 admitted.

19           2. The Complaint alleges 10 causes of action which Plaintiff pursues on a class-wide 20 basis: (1) failure to provide required meal periods; (2) failure to provide required rest periods;
21 (3) failure to pay overtime wages; (4) failure to pay minimum wages; (5) failure to pay all wages 22 due to discharged and quitting employees; (6) failure to maintain required records; (7) failure to 23 furnish accurate itemized wage statements; (8) failure to indemnify employees for necessary 24 expenditures incurred in discharge of duties; (9) unfair and unlawful business practices; and 25 (10) penalties under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act. (See generally Ex. A. supra.)

26           3. True and correct copies of the Summons, Civil Case Cover Sheet (“CCCS”), and 27 Alternate Dispute Resolution Package (“ADR”) are attached to the Kim Decl. as Exhibit B.

28           4. True and correct copies of Proofs of Service of Summons, Complaint, CCCS and

1 ADR are attached to the Kim Decl. as Exhibit C.

2 5. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), the foregoing exhibits constitute all process,
3 pleadings and orders received by Defendants or filed with the Court in this action. To 4 Defendants' knowledge, no further process, pleadings, or orders related to this case have been 5 filed in Superior Court of California, County of Tulare. (Kim Decl., ¶ 5.)

6 II. TIMELINESS OF REMOVAL

7 6. This Notice of Removal is timely filed in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b), in 8 that it is filed within thirty (30) days after October 28, 2022, date on which Defendants were 9 served with the Complaint. See Murphy Bros., Inc. v. Mitchetti Pipe Stringing, Inc., 526 U.S.
10 344, 354 (1999). The 30-day period for removal runs from the date of service of the summons
11 and complaint, as governed by state law. See id. Here, the last day for removal falls on 12 November 28, 2022, accounting for weekends and holidays. See 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b); Fed. R.
13 Civ. Proc. 6(a); Krug v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. C 11-5190, 2011 WL 6182341, *1 (N.D.
14 Cal. Dec. 13, 2011). Accordingly, this Notice of Removal has been timely filed within the time
15 provided by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).

16 III. VENUE

17 7. The United States District Court for the Eastern District of California is the proper
18 venue for removal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a) because the action is pending in the Superior
19 Court of the State of California for the County of Tulare, which is located within the Eastern 20 District of California. 28 U.S.C. § 84(b).

21 IV. INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

22 8. Pursuant to E.D. Cal. L.R. 120(d), this action should be “commenced in the United 23 States District Court sitting in Fresno, California, and in Bakersfield, California, Yosemite 24 National Park or other designated places within those counties” because the action arises in 25 Tulare County.

26 V. JURISDICTION PURSUANT TO THE CLASS ACTION FAIRNESS ACT

27 9. This Court has original jurisdiction over this case pursuant to the Class Action
28 Fairness Act of 2005 (“CAFA”). 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d). CAFA provides the federal district courts

1 with original jurisdiction over civil class action lawsuits filed under federal or state law in which 2 any member of a class of plaintiffs is a citizen of a state different from any defendant, and where
 3 the amount in controversy exceeds $5 million exclusive of interest and costs. 28 U.S.C. §
 4 1332(d)(2).

5 10. Here, removal is proper under CAFA because, as set forth below, the case is filed 6 as a civil class action, the amount in controversy allegedly exceeds $5 million exclusive of 7 interest and costs, and at least one member (if not all) of the class of plaintiffs is a citizen of a
 8 state different from Defendants. The exceptions set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(3)-(5) are not 9 applicable here.

10 11. This action was initially brought on behalf of “all current and former non-exempt
 11 employees of DEFENDANTS in the State of California at any time within the period beginning
 12 four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and ending at the time this action settles or proceeds 13 to final judgment.” (Compl., ¶ 5, Ex. A to Kim Decl., ¶ 2.) The size of the class is unknown to 14 Plaintiff. However, Plaintiff claims that the potential class is a significant number such that 15 joinder of all current and former employees individually would be impractical. (Id., at ¶ 20.)

16 A. Citizenship of Parties

17 12. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1453(b), “A class action may be removed to a district 18 court of the United States in accordance with section 1446 (except that the 1-year limitation under 19 section 1446(c)(1) shall not apply), without regard to whether any defendant is a citizen of the 20 State in which the action is brought, except that such action may be removed by any defendant 21 without the consent of all defendants.” CAFA’s diversity requirement is satisfied when any 22 member of a class of citizens is a citizen of a State different from any defendant. 28 U.S.C.
 23 § 1332(d)(2).

24 13. For diversity purposes, a person is a “citizen” of the state in which he or she is 25 domiciled. Kantor v. Wellesley Galleries, Ltd., 704 F.2d 1088 (9th Cir. 1983). A person’s
 26 domicile is the place he or she resides with the intention to remain, or to which he or she intends 27 to return. Kanter v. Warner-Labert Co., 265 F.3d 853, 857 (9th Cir. 2001).

28 14. Here, Plaintiff alleges that she “is a citizen and resident of the State of California.”

(Compl., ¶ 7, Ex. A to Kim Decl.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of California for diversity purposes. Kanter, 265 F.3d at 857.

15. For purposes of CAFA, “a corporation shall be deemed to be a citizen of every State and foreign state by which it has been incorporated and of the State or foreign state where it has its principal place of business.” 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1); see also, Johnson v. Columbia Prop. Anchorage, LP, 437 F.3d 894, 899 (9th Cir. 2006).

16. Defendant Lincare Inc. is a corporation that is incorporated in and exists under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business in the State of Florida. Accordingly, Defendant Lincare Inc. is a citizen of Florida and Delaware for purposes of diversity jurisdiction. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1).

17. Defendant Lincare Pharmacy Services Inc. is a corporation that is incorporated in and exists under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business in the State of Florida. Accordingly, Defendant Lincare Pharmacy Services Inc. is a citizen of Florida and Delaware for purposes of diversity jurisdiction. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1).

18. The presence of Doe defendants in this case has no bearing on diversity with respect to removal. See 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a) (“[f]or purposes of removal under this chapter, the citizenship of defendants sued under fictitious names shall be disregarded”).

19. Here, diversity of citizenship is met because Plaintiff is a citizen of California while Defendants are citizens of Florida and Delaware. Therefore, the minimal diversity requirement is fully satisfied. See, 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A).

B. The Amount in Controversy Exceeds $5 Million and Plaintiff’s Classes are More than 100 Class Members

20. CAFA requires the “matter in controversy” to exceed “the sum or value of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.” 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2). “The claims of the individual class members shall be aggregated to determine whether the matter in controversy exceeds” this amount. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(6). Further, CAFA may only be invoked if the proposed class contains at least 100 members. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d).

21. “In determining the amount in controversy, courts first look to the complaint.

1 Generally, ‘the sum claimed by the plaintiff controls if the claim is apparently made in good
 2 faith.’” Ibarra v. Manheim Investments, Inc. (9th Cir. 2015) 775 F.3d 1193, 1197 (citing St. Paul
 3 Mercury Indem. Co. v. Red Cab Co., 303 U.S. 283, 289 (1938)). “Whether damages are unstated
 4 in a complaint, or, in the defendant’s view are understated, the defendant seeking removal bears
 5 the burden to show by a preponderance of the evidence that the aggregate amount in controversy
 6 exceeds $5 million when federal jurisdiction is challenged.” Ibid.

7 22. Plaintiff has not alleged a specific amount in controversy in her Complaint. A 8 “defendants’ notice of removal need include only a plausible allegation that the amount in 9 controversy exceeds the jurisdictional threshold.” Dart Cherokee Basin Operating Co., LLC v.
 10 Owens, 574 U.S. 81, 89 (2014). If the plaintiff or the court contests a defendant’s allegations,
 11 however, “[e]vidence establishing the amount is required.” (Id.) As noted in Dart Cherokee:
 12 “[D]efendants do not need to prove to a legal certainty that the amount in controversy
 13 requirement has been met. Rather, defendants may simply allege or assert that the jurisdictional
 14 threshold has been met. Discovery may be taken with regard to that question. In case of a 15 dispute, the district court must make findings of jurisdictional fact to which the preponderance
 16 standard applies.” Id. (quoting House Judiciary Committee Report on the Federal Courts 17 Jurisdiction and Venue Clarification Act of 2011, H.R. Rep. No. 112-10, p. 16 (2011)). See also 18 Arias v. Residence Inn, 936 F.3d 920, 922 (9th Cir. 2019) (“a removing defendant’s notice of 19 removal ‘need not contain evidentiary submissions’ but only plausible allegations of the 20 jurisdictional elements”) (quoting Ibarra v. Manheim Investments, Inc., 775 F.3d 1193, 1197 (9th 21 Cir. 2015)).

22 23. Here, Lincare can plausibly allege, based on Plaintiff’s Complaint and her prayer
 23 for relief, that the amount in controversy for Plaintiff’s class-wide claims exceeds $5 million.
 24 The assertions of Lincare herein are limited to their preliminary understanding of Plaintiff’s
 25 claims and data currently available to Lincare.

26 24. Plaintiff has defined the proposed Class as “all current and former non-exempt
 27 employees of DEFENDANTS in the State of California at any time within the period beginning
 28 four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and ending at the time this action settles or proceeds

1 to final judgment.” (Compl., ¶ 5, Ex. A to Kim Decl., ¶ 2.) (the “Proposed Class Members”).
 2 During the period of September 7, 2018 to November 28, 2022 (the date of removal) (hereinafter,
 3 the “Relevant Time Period”), based on the personnel and payroll records of those whom Lincare
 4 employed as hourly non-exempt employees during the Relevant Time Period, Lincare employed
 5 at least 629 individuals in California as hourly, non-exempt employees. The employees in 6 question were employed full-time, and worked eight hours a day for 5 days a week. Accordingly,
 7 based on the employees’ shift lengths and workweek schedules, it is reasonable to assume that all
 8 629 employees in question are members of the Proposed Class Members. Based on the Proposed
 9 Class Members’ personnel and payroll records, the average hourly rate of the Proposed Class
 10 Members is $19.83 per hour. As of the date of the removal, the Proposed Class Members worked 11 approximately 40,086 workweeks in the Relevant Time Period.

12 25. While Lincare denies Plaintiff’s claims of wrongdoing and denies her request for 13 relief thereon, the facial allegations in Plaintiff’s Complaint and the total amount of wages, 14 penalties and attorneys’ fees at issue in this action, when viewed in the light most favorable to 15 Plaintiff, is in excess of the jurisdictional minimum. Lockett v. Delta Airlines, Inc., 171 F.3d 295, 16 298 (5th Cir. 1999). “In measuring the amount in controversy, a court must assume that the 17 allegations of the complaint are true and that a jury will return a verdict for the plaintiff on all 18 claims made in the complaint.” Kenneth Rothschild Trust v. Morgan Stanley Dean Witter, 199 F.
 19 Supp. 2d 993, 1001 (C.D. Cal. 2002). “When a ‘[d]efendant’s calculations (are) relatively 20 conservative, made in good faith, and based on evidence whenever possible,’ the court may find 21 that the ‘[d]efendant has established by a preponderance of the evidence that the amount in 22 controversy is met.’” Cagle v. C&S Wholesale Grocers, Inc., __ F.R.D. __, 2014 WL 651923, 23 *7 (E.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2014) (quoting Behrazfar v. Unisys Corp., 687 F. Supp. 2d 1199, 1204-05
 24 (E.D. Cal. 2008) (citations omitted)). Nor does Lincare need to provide summary judgment-type 25 evidence. Cagle, 2014 WL 651923, *7.

26 26. Where a plaintiff alleges that a defendant “adopted and maintained uniform
 27 policies, practices and procedures that caused the purported violations of California's [break laws] 28 ... [i]t is not unreasonable to assume that when a company has unlawful policies and they are uniformly ‘adopted and maintained,’ then the company may potentially violate the law in each and every situation where those policies are applied.” Mejia v. DHL Express (USA), Inc., No. CV 15-890-GHK JCx, 2015 WL 2452755, *4 (C.D. Cal. May 21, 2015) (emphasis added). In that instance, the district court found that “a 100% violation rate is not an unreasonable assumption to use in estimating the amount in controversy in light of the allegations in the complaint.” Id.

27. Here, Plaintiff alleges 10 causes of action: (1) failure to provide required meal periods; (2) failure to provide required rest periods; (3) failure to pay overtime wages; (4) failure to pay minimum wages; (5) failure to pay all wages due to discharged and quitting employees; (6) failure to maintain required records; (7) failure to furnish accurate itemized wage statements; (8) failure to indemnify employees for necessary expenditures incurred in discharge of duties; (9) unfair and unlawful business practices; and (10) penalties under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, as representative actions. (See generally Ex. A. supra.)

28. Plaintiff seeks unpaid wages, unpaid premium compensation, interest, penalties, as well as attorneys’ fees and costs. Plaintiff seeks recovery of the aforementioned remedies for all members of the Proposed Class. (See, e.g., id. at Prayer for Relief, ¶¶ 1-13.)

Failure to Provide Meal Periods Claim

29. As for her First Cause of Action, Plaintiff alleges that “PLAINTIFF and other similarly situated and aggrieved employees were given short meal breaks, provided meal breaks late (after the fifth hour of work for the first meal period and/or after the tenth hour of work for the second meal period), had their meal breaks interrupted, and/or were denied their meal breaks entirely.” (Compl., at ¶ 14, Ex. A to Kim Decl., ¶ 2.) Plaintiff further alleges that “as part of DEFENDANTS’ illegal policies and practices to deprive their current and former non-exempt employees all wages earned and due, DEFENDANTS required, suffered or permitted PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS to take less than the 30-minute meal period, or to work through them, and have failed to other provide the required meal periods to PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS under Labor Code § 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage Order No. 5-2001, § 11 (Id., at ¶ 22.)

30. Based on her allegations, Plaintiff alleges that the Proposed Class Members were prevented from taking any lawful meal breaks for each shift they worked because of Lincare's illegal policies and practices. This type of allegation permits a reasonable assumption of a 100 percent violation rate, or 5 hours of pay per week for 5 days of missed meal breaks. However, using a conservative assumption that the Proposed Class Members were not provided with two meal breaks per workweek (two out of five meal periods were missed, short, or late per week), then based on the Proposed Class' average rate of pay ($19.83/hour) and their respective number of workweeks (40,086 workweeks), the meal break violation claim alleges at least $1,589,810.76 ($19.83/hour x 2 hour x 40,086 workweeks) in damages.<sup>1</sup>

Failure to Provide Rest Periods Claim

31. As for her Second Cause of Action, Plaintiff alleges that "DEFENDANTS consistently failed to authorize and permit PLAINTIFF and other similarly situated and aggrieved employees off-duty rest breaks, including failing to authorize and permit PLAINTIFF and other similarly situated aggrieved employees to take rest breaks in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable." (Compl., at ¶ 15, Ex. A to Kim Decl., ¶ 2.) Plaintiff further alleges that "as part of DEFENDANTS' illegal policies and practices to deprive their current and former non-exempt employees all wages earned and due, DEFENDANTS failed to provide rest periods to PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage Order No. 5-2001, § 12." (Id., at ¶ 27.)

32. Based on her allegations, Plaintiff is claiming that the Proposed Class Members were prevented from taking any lawful rest breaks for each shift they worked because of Lincare's illegal policies and practices. This type of allegation permits a reasonable assumption of a 100 percent violation rate. However, using a conservative assumption that the Proposed Class Members were not provided with two rest breaks per workweek (merely a 20 percent violation rate (two rest periods taken out of 10 rest periods owed per week)), based on the Proposed Class members' average rate of pay ($19.83/hour) and their respective number of workweeks (40,086 workweeks), the rest break violation claim alleges at least $1,589,810.76 ($19.83/hour x

<sup>1</sup> The meal break calculation is also reasonable as it is only accounting for the alleged violation of the first meal break, not the second meal break.

2 hour x 40,086 workweeks) in damages.

Failure to Pay Minimum Wage

33. As for the Fourth Cause of Action, Plaintiff alleges that “DEFENDANTS failed to pay PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS the applicable minimum wages for all hours worked in a payroll period by, among other things: requiring, suffering or permitting PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS to work off the clock; requiring, suffering or permitting PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS to work through meal and rest breaks; illegally and inaccurately recording time in which PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS worked...” (Complaint, ¶ 37.) Further, Plaintiff alleges that “DEFENDANTS, and each of them, acted pursuant to, and in furtherance of, their policies and practices of not paying PLAINTIFF and other CLASS MEMBERS all wages earned and due, through methods and schemes which include, but are not limited to, failing to pay overtime premiums...requiring, permitting or suffering the employees work off the clock, in violation of the California Labor Code and the applicable Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Orders.” (Complaint, ¶ 10.) These allegations of unpaid wages due to “policies, practices, and procedures” warrant an assumption of at least 30 minutes of unpaid wages per week. See Andrade v. Beacon Sales Acquisition, Inc., Case No. CV 19-6963-CJC(RAOx), 2019 WL 4855997, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 1, 2019) (“violation rate of one hour off-the-clock work and two hours of uncompensated overtime per workweek was reasonable based on allegation of ‘policy and/or practice’”).

34. Based on the applicable minimum wage and the accompanying liquidated damages, if Proposed Class Members worked off the clock only 30 minutes per week, the amount in controversy for this claim is $521,118 ((40,086 workweeks x $13 per hour) x 30 minutes x 2 for liquidated damages).

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due to Discharged and Quitting Employees

35. As for the Fifth Cause of Action, Plaintiff claims that “[d]uring the CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANTS have willfully failed to pay accrued wages and other compensation to PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.” (Id., ¶ 15.) Plaintiff further alleges that “[a]s a result, PLAINTIFF and CLASS MEMBERS are entitled to all available statutory penalties, including the waiting time penalties provided in

1 California Labor Code § 203, together with interest thereon, as well as other available remedies.”
 2 (Id. at ¶ 44.)

3 36. Given the three-year statute of limitations for claims under section 203, at least 4 272 class members were terminated after September 7, 2019. The average daily shift for these 5 employees was eight hours in length. Assuming arguendo the truth of Plaintiff’s allegations that 6 these employees are entitled to waiting time penalties, the amount in controversy is estimated to 7 be at least $1,294,502.40 (272 terminations x $19.83/hour x 8 hours x 30 days).

8 Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements Claim

9 37. For the Seventh Cause of Action, Plaintiff alleges that “[d]uring the CLASS 10 PERIOD, DEFENDANTS routinely failed and continue to fail to provide PLAINTIFF and 11 CLASS MEMBERS with timely and accurate itemized wage statements in writing showing each 12 employee’s gross wages earned, total hours worked, the number of piece-rate units earned and 13 any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, all deductions made, net 14 wages earned, the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, the name of the 15 employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or employee
 16 identification number, the name and address of the legal entity or entities employing PLAINTIFF
 17 and CLASS MEMBERS, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay period and the 18 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate, in violation of California Labor Code 19 § 226(a) and IWC Wage Order No. 5-2001, § 7.” (Id., at ¶ 50.) Plaintiff further alleges that 20 “DEFENDANTS knowingly and intentionally failed to provide PLAINTIFF and CLASS
 21 MEMBERS with timely and accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code §
 22 226(a). (Id., at ¶ 51.)

23 38. “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by 24 an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages
 25 or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars
 26 ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate 27 penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000).” Cal. Labor Code ¶ 226(e)(1).

28 39. Proposed Class Members received one wage statement every two weeks. Given

1 the one-year statute of limitations for this claim, if every Proposed Class Member that worked
 2 after September 7, 2021, is awarded $50 for the first pay period he or she worked, and $100 for 3 every pay period thereafter, then this claim puts $557,250.00 at stake.

4 40. The amount in controversy for only Plaintiff's first (meal break violation claim),
 5 second (rest break violation claim), fourth (minimum wage claim), fifth (waiting time penalties)
 6 and seventh (wage statement claim) causes of action is estimated to be at least $5,552,491.92, 7 exclusive of attorneys' fees and interest.

8 41. Plaintiff also seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs for the 9 Proposed Class Members pursuant to the California Labor Code §§ 1194, 2699, 2802, and 10 California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. (See Prayer for Relief, Ex. A to Kim Decl.) "[A] 11 court must include future attorneys' fees recoverable by statute or contract when assessing
 12 whether the amount-in-controversy requirement is met." Fritsch v. Swift Transp. Co., 899 F.3d
 13 785, 794 (9th Cir. 2018). "[I]f the law entitles the plaintiff to future attorneys' fees if the action
 14 succeeds, 'then there is no question that future [attorneys' fees] are 'at stake' in the litigation,' 15 and the defendant may attempt to prove that future attorneys' fees should be included in the 16 amount in controversy." Id.

17 42. Although Fritsch has rejected an automatic assumption that a 25 percent fee
 18 recovery will be awarded in a wage and hour class action, the Fritsch court still permits use of a 19 "percentage based method" "when estimating the amount of attorneys' fees included in the 20 amount in controversy." Id., at 796, n.6. District courts have recognized this important caveat in 21 Fritsch. See Cortez v. United Natural Foods, Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 31540, *22-23 (N.D.
 22 Cal. Feb. 27, 2019) ("while the Ninth Circuit refused to hold that a court must always use the 23 25% rate of the final award to determine future attorneys' fees, the Court did 'not hold that a 24 percentage-based method is never relevant when estimating the amount of attorneys' fees 25 included in the amount in controversy.'").

26 43. The rule now is merely that a removing defendant cannot assume that such a 27 percentage will be awarded. As a result, several district courts, after Fritsch, have held that where 28 nothing about a wage and hour class action suggests that there would be a downward departure from the 25 percent benchmark, such a percentage is appropriate. See Cortez, 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 31540, *23 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 27, 2019) (relying on Fritsch, holding that “[i]n the Court’s experience, this appears to be a typical wage and hour class action to which courts in this Circuit would likely apply the 25% benchmark rate.”); Kastler v. Oh My Green, Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 185484, *18 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 25, 2019) (following Fritsch, and holding that “[a]lthough Defendant provide[d] very little to support a 25% fee calculation,” the court, relying “on its own knowledge of customary rates and [its] experience concerning reasonable and proper fees,” found that it was reasonable); Ramirez v. Benihana Nat’l Corp., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 3537, *6 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 8, 2019) (“While the Court acknowledges the 25% benchmark does not automatically apply in all cases, see Fritsch, 899 F.3d at 796...none of the factors counseling against the application of the 25% benchmark have been raised by plaintiffs, nor does the record before the Court otherwise reflect a departure from such benchmark is warranted.”).

44. Therefore, because nothing about this wage and hour class action suggests that a downward departure is warranted, this Court should consider attorneys’ fees to be 25 percent of the fund. Considering the sum of the potential damages for only the first, second, fourth, fifth, and seventh causes of action are estimated to be at least $5,552,491.92, it is reasonable to assume arguendo that the potential attorneys’ fees would be $1,388,122.98 ($5,552,491.92 x 25%) for these five causes of action. This calculation would put a total of $6,940,614.90 in controversy ($5,552,491.92 + $1,388,122.98 = $6,940,614.90).

45. Accordingly, the amount of attorneys’ fees at stake in this case add even more to the amount in controversy.

46. Finally, CAFA’s numerosity requirement of the proposed class having at least 100 class members is satisfied by the 629 Proposed Class Members identified herein above. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(5)(B).
